A: Isis-Tyche standing on pedestal, in a shrine, which is built of two pillars topped with a lunette. She is wearing a tunic and a mantle, her head crowned with the double feathers crown. Her right hand rests upon a rudder, the left hand holds a cornucopia. Above, in the lunette, a scarab with outstretched double wings, surrounded with the letters α and ε, continued on the pillars: εηηηηηηηηηηη (left), ο υςςςςς ωωωω (right), ωωω (under the ground line) → vocales in pterygoma form.

B: Snake with head erect to right, head crowned with double feathers crown. Around, inscription in four concentric lines: αρπουχνουφι βριντατηνωφρι βαωχημησεω → variant of αρπουχνουφι-logos.
