

Magical (?) gem in post-antique copper ring: Anubis

CBd-Number	CBd-2099
ID-Number	DE-Berlin-Aeg_10117
Collection	DE_Berlin, Staatliche Museen zu Berlin, Ägyptisches Museum
Inventory	10117
References	Philipp, Mira et Magica , no. 144; Michel, DMG , no. 24.3.c_2; Mastrocinque, SGG I , 193, no. 74
Former Collections	Rosen Collection (Constantinople)
Material	agate, yellow to orange
Dimensions	11.5 x 10 x 5 mm
Dating	turn of the 2nd and 3rd c. AD (H. Philipp)
Iconography	Anubis; vessel: situla; clothing: mantle
A: Jackal-headed figure (Anubis) standing to left, wearing a long garment and holding a situla in his left hand, right hand stretched forward (stone damaged). B: Plain. The gem may have been designed after a drawing in Chifletius-Macarius, Abrasax, see CBd-2825. Bibliography Philipp, Mira et Magica on CBd-2099 Michel, DMG, 24.3.c_2.
Last modified: 2017-10-01 12:49:15		